MILANO

As the world keeps changing, there is a more and more vivid need to believe there is a higher & stronger force within us that feels like a living fantasy, a force that can make us better and strive for greatness. The elaborate path of becoming such a super-power is often expressed in artistic ways, which is no coincidence that we can find it in fashion trends and creatives' inspiration notes.

The collection that Prelude proposes for this upcoming Fall / Winter 2018-2019 season is one that evokes a certain romantic, yet powerful, philosophy about the modern woman, in all its complexity. Sumptuous and almost surreal, the otherworldly inspiration of these lingerie pieces expresses pure enchantment and artfulness, which add up to the portrait of the Prelude woman, an independent and complex being. Through symbolic motifs spread across the collection, the detailing of each lingerie piece presents a dramatic, cinematic decorative setting, that takes the stage over a certain subtle simplicity. The Prelude woman becomes the lead character of her own story, a different kind of fairytale, where she is what she desires to be, cherishing and promoting her inner strength & beauty.

The designs showcased in this collection are very elaborated, even theatrical, finding themselves at the transition line between lingerie and outerwear, which is a continuously growing trend in fashion & lingerie.

Luxury Lingerie

Fall / Winter 2018-2019

GRACE

Grace is the lace lingerie line of Prelude's luxury collection, proposed for this upcoming Fall / Winter 2018-2019 season, a selection of statement pieces that entail the craftsmanship and artfulness of this brand.

Each lingerie piece in this line seems to interpret a certain character in a fantasy tale, where the natural references come as precious details that try to capture a certain romantic, yet mysterious mood. These graphic manifestations of nature are beautifully exposed on the lace, creating a mesmerizing kaleidoscopic effect.

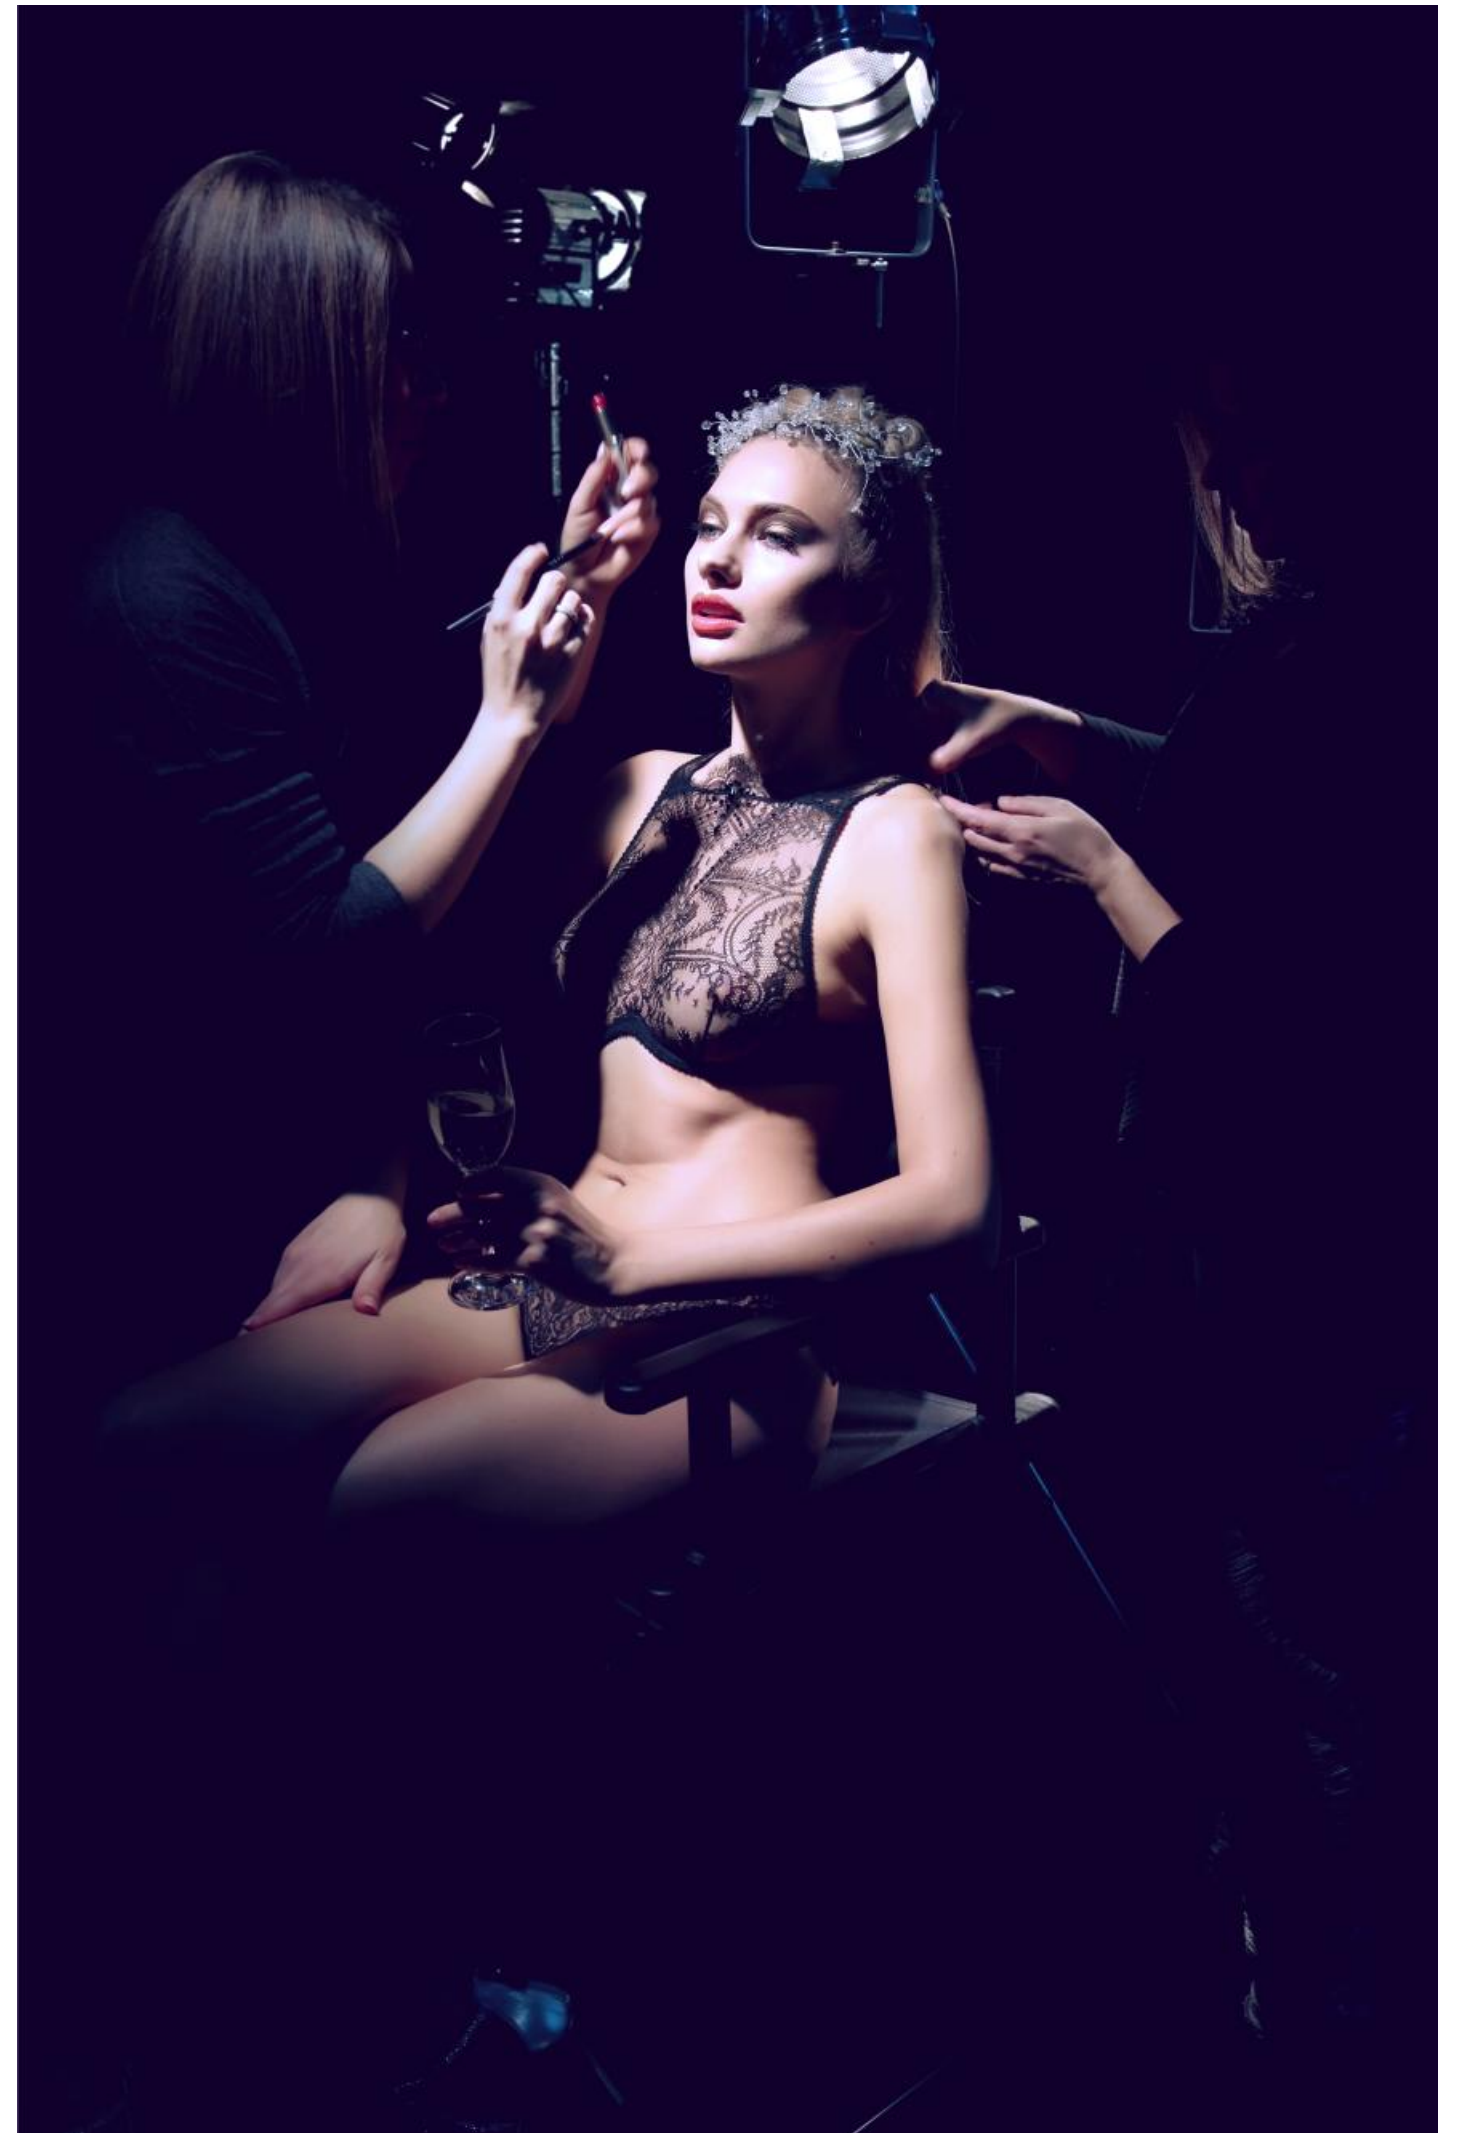

The line includes styles that are modern and bold, astonishing and somewhat theatrical, that reiterate the idea that the Prelude woman is as powerful as she makes herself feel and as fragile as she lets herself be. These lingerie pieces exude confidence, sumptuousness and also delicacy, in spite of its powerful first-look.

With a filigreed structure, the placed lace is interpreted in a wide range of products, from different styles of bras and briefs, to statement bodysuits and even to loungewear pieces .

The texture of the lace is elegantly combined with the ultra-soft & elastic microfiber , together offering a lightness & skin-friendliness .

Grace also includes some complementary pieces, like the waist-belt, which is gaining back attention in the lingerie world. Moreover, in terms of loungewear , the line proposes an exquisite long dress, a shirt, a crop-top, a mid-length skirt and a really elegant robe.

Chromatically, each lingerie piece of Grace is available in black and in dark red.

ANGELINE

The glamour and fashion-forwardness that define the core of Prelude as a brand are very much present as well in Angeline, the second lingerie line of the Fall / Winter 2018-2019 collection.

The key design aspect of this line is the use of a fabulous Swiss embroidery, attentively placed on each lingerie piece, in order to capture the perfect shape of the product and of the body, altogether. The detailing of the embroidery is even more visual due to the Guipure technique, used for carving the graphic of the texture. However, some parts of the embroidery are doubled with a tulle background, to enhance the drawing and the overall look of the design.

As a complementary texture, the soft, elastic satin adds up an extra touch of elegance, together with the embroidery creating an incredibly lavish look.

Angeline includes a variety of lingerie pieces, with different bra styles and briefs, a chic long-sleeved bodysuit and other complementary products, like the braided waist-bra. The chromatic palette showcases three color variants for the lingerie pieces in Angeline: the timeless black, a bridal white and a sweet powdery rose. Two of the color options add a shimmery touch to the embroidery - a lurex thread: on black, the thread is also black, and on white, the thread comes in a dégradé silvery shade. The powdery rose embroidery does not have a lurex thread sewn in.
